

Second Irish National Eating Disorders Conference, 2017

09:00 – Registration

09:30 – Welcome and Opening Remarks: Gerard Butcher; Conference Organiser

09:45 – Keynote Address: Prof. J. Hubert Lacey, Professor Emeritus in Psychiatry at the University of London & Medical Director of Newbridge House National Centre for Eating Disorders, Birmingham, England

Optimism about Treating Severe and Enduring Anorexia - a Clinical Review and Practical Evidence-Based Treatment

10:45 - Q & A

11:00 – Break

11:30 – Lecture: Harriet Parsons MA, MSc , Training & Development Manager, BODYWHYS Ireland

Eating Disorders: Taking perspective on the ‘secret’ challenges that treatment and support encounter.

12:00 – Q & A

12:10 – Gerard Butcher MSc, Cognitive Behavioural Psychotherapist, Dublin & Gabriele Haselberger, Journalist and therapist, Vienna, Austria.

Tummy Tales - a body image perspective on the views of women about their stomach

12:30 – Lunch - served in registration area

13:30 – Prof. Glenn Waller, Department of Psychology, University of Sheffield, England.

CBT Masterclass – Evidence-Based Cognitive Behavioural Therapy for Eating Disorders: Principles and Practice

15:15 – Q&A

15:30-16:00 – Final Discussion, Comments, Feedback